Volunteer Positions

Picnic Area Volunteer: Help setup or take down tables and chairs and general setup/clean up at the Picnic area (The Alameda and Hanchett).

Parade Route Marshals & Assistants: Oversee pace of parade at key locations along parade route. (18+ years old for Marshals, 16+ for assistants)

Staging: Assist parade captains with the checking-in and lining-up of units, and start of parade. Areas include floats, marching musical units, balloons, specialty units, VIPs, and equestrians. (14+ years old)

Destaging: Assist with the disbursement of units at the end of the parade route. Collect signs, banners, etc. (14+ years old)

Parade Captains: Oversee check-in and lining-up of units and start of parade on Shasta Avenue and adjacent streets. (21+ years old)

Please note that volunteers under the age of 14 may volunteer if accompanied by a parent.*

Parade Information

- Please report to the volunteer check-in area behind the Parade Command Post at your assigned time on the day of the parade. (Report time will be in your confirmation letter.)
- The parade will go on, rain or shine. The success of the parade is based on the commitment and participation of all volunteers and units.

Application Information

- Please fill out the appropriate application and return to the Rose, White and Blue Parade (see page 1).
- Confirmations will be sent out shortly after the application deadline. (The RWBP staff will determine volunteer assignments. Unfortunately, we may not be able to grant all preferred requests.)

Note: Upon confirmation, a Volunteer Waiver Agreement form will be sent and must be completed and signed prior to the event. Volunteers under 18 will need a parent/guardian signature.
